Pope Francis calls for day of prayer and fasting for peace, especially for the DRC and South Sudan

Pope Francis has called for a "special day of prayer and fasting for peace in the world" on Friday, Feb. 23, 2018, particularly for peace in the conflict-stricken nations of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and South Sudan. He invited Catholics and other Christians as well as followers of other religions and people of good will to join in this event.

He made the surprise announcement on Sunday, Feb. 4, after praying and reciting the Angelus with thousands of pilgrims from many countries gathered in St. Peter's Square. "In the face of the tragic continuation of conflicts in different parts of the world, I invite all the faithful to a special day of prayer and fasting for peace on February 23, the Friday of the first week of Lent," he said.

Until recently the DRC has been at the center what has been called "Africa's world war," a multi-state conflict that has claimed as many as 6 million lives due to armed conflict, disease or malnutrition.

More than 3.5 million people have been displaced in South Sudan, around 2 million internally; 1.5 million more (80 percent of them women and children) have fled to neighboring countries. Turning to his worldwide audience, Pope Francis said, "I make a heartfelt appeal so that we too listen to that cry and each of us, in our own conscience, ask ourselves before God, 'What can I do for peace?'"

One Faith, One Hope, One Family in God

A Prayer for the Idaho Catholic Appeal

Lord God, source of everything we are and have, we know that whatever you give us is to be shared with others in our families, our parishes, our communities and our world. Through the Idaho Catholic Appeal, your Church provides for us a way to be good stewards of what you have given to us. As we consider how much we should give, help us to be generous and joyful, and help our Diocese to use wisely our offering so that the work of Redemption of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, can be accomplished in our parishes, our Diocese, our nation and throughout the world. Amen

Jornada de Oración y Ayuno por la Paz en el Congo y Sudán del Sur

Ciudad del Vaticano, 4 de febrero de 2018 (Notimex). – El Papa Francisco lanzó hoy una convocatoria a una jornada mundial de oración y ayuno por la paz para el 23 de febrero, dedicada en especial a la situación de inestabilidad en el Congo y Sudán del Sur. El Papa hizo el anuncio al final de su rezo dominical con la oración mariana del Angelus, asomado a la ventana de su estudio personal en el Palacio Apostólico del Vaticano y ante miles de personas congregadas en la Plaza de San Pedro del Vaticano.

“Ante el trágico aumento de situaciones de conflicto en diversas partes del mundo, invito a todos los fieles a una especial jornada de oración y ayuno por la paz el 23 de febrero, viernes de la primera semana de Cuaresma”, indicó. Aseguró que ese momento se ofrecerá, en especial por las poblaciones de la República Democrática del Congo y de Sudán del Sur

“Nuestro padre celeste escucha siempre a sus hermanos que gritan a él en el dolor y en la angustia, sana los corazones rotos y cura sus heridas”, sostuvo. Por eso, dirigió un “sentido llamado” para que también todos los seres humanos escuchen este grito y, cada uno en su propia conciencia, ante Dios, se pregunte: ¿Qué cosa puedo hacer yo por la paz?

Replicó que todos pueden rezar, pero cada uno puede decir concretamente no a la violencia, en lo que depende de él o ella, porque las victorias obtenidas con la violencia son falsas victorias. “Mientras tanto trabajar por la paz nos hace bien a todos”, sentenció. Antes, al saludar a un grupo de miembros del Movimiento por la Vida de Italia, el líder católico lamentó que no sean tantas las personas que trabajan en defensa de la vida en un tiempo en que cada vez más se fabrican armas, se aprueban leyes contra la vida y se cae en la cultura del descarte. “Recemos porque nuestro pueblo sea más consciente de la defensa de la vida”, apuntó.
